

2024 ADVERTISING & MARKETING KIT

Making fun possible by highlighting cool things to do, from social sports to events and team-building activities.

Our Story

At its core, DC Fray is a lifestyle brand on a mission to make fun possible and we believe that play has the power to transform lives, build communities, and create positive impact in the world. From humble beginnings as a local Skee-ball League, we have expanded our mission beyond sports to include events, travel, fitness, media, and more. We want to make fun a lifestyle to help motivate even more people to love what they do, and do what they love every single day. Through our values that we embody day in and day out - play, gratitude, positivity, courage, innovation, community, and hustle - we aim to walk the walk on what it means to experience the #FrayLife.
